

How to setting Thai Character (UTF-8) by mC-Print Utility Application

1. Download Application from Play Store

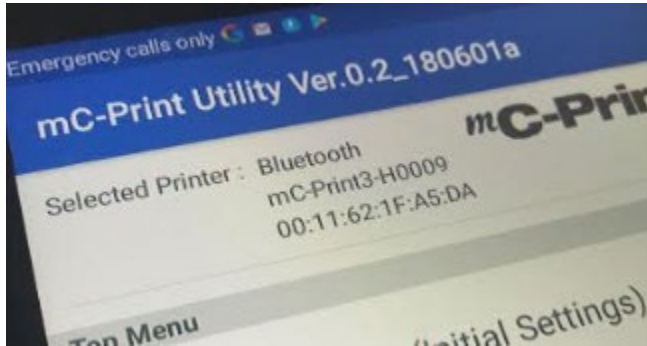

2. Connect printer to Android Device via Type B USB Cable + Micro OTG Cable

How to setting Thai Character (UTF-8) by mC-Print Utility Application

3. Open Application and click "Selected Printer"

4. Choose your printer then click "OK" for communicate to printer

5. Click "Print Setting"

How to setting Thai Character (UTF-8) by mC-Print Utility Application

6. Click "Memory Switch Setting"

7. Change Special Region=Thai1Pass and Code Page=UTF-8 then click "Apply"

How to setting Thai Character (UTF-8) by mC-Print Utility Application

8.Or change on Bit Mode >> Memory Switch 3 Bit F = ON then click "Apply"

